

Utah Martin Luther King Jr. License Plate Art Contest Permissions and Waivers

Please note that you must submit the following authorizations in order to compete in the Utah Martin Luther King Jr. license plate art contest. If you have further questions, please contact your contest coordinator or the Martin Luther King Jr. Human Rights Commission at mlkcommission@utah.gov.

By indicating yes below, I will release my child's rights to their license plate design; thereby giving the Martin Luther King Jr. Human Rights Commission ("Commission"), its affiliate programs, and its partners the unlimited right to use my child's license plate design without compensation. The Commission will use the license plate design for publicity, and/or in documentaries, or other education materials and media, including online.

☐ Yes, I agree

☐ No, I do not agree

If no, please explain:

By indicating yes below, I give the Commission, its affiliate programs, and its partners the unlimited right to use the voice and/or image of me and/or my child without compensation for publicity, and/or in documentaries, or other education materials and media, including online. I also give permission to the Commission, and its affiliate programs the right to use my child's project for teaching and example purposes, including online.

If I choose "No," I acknowledge that the Commission and contest coordinators will do their best to ensure that I and/or my child is not photographed. However, due to the number of participants at the contest this cannot be guaranteed. I am aware that I must remove myself and/or my child from group photography situations, and if necessary, speak to the photographer/media to request that I and/or my child not be photographed.

☐ Yes, I agree

☐ No, I do not agree

If no, please explain:

☐ I have read the above statement and agree; I will follow the rules of this contest.
